

Gun Violence Prevention Challenge Summit & Hack-a-thon

April 13 – 15, 2018 | Boston, Massachusetts

Ladi is an IT & HR Systems Project Management professional in the Healthcare & Hospitality space with a B.S in Industrial Engineering Technology from Tennessee State University. He began his career in Supply Chain & Manufacturing Operations at PepsiCo and transitioned into Project Mgmt at Highmark & Optum. Ladi is the Vice President of NSBE Boston (National Society of Black Engineers), a minority organization for STEM Professionals. Ladi is actively involved in diversity initiatives within the Boston area and also involved in community & youth development programs.